MEDIA BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON TIVO'S REQUEST FOR WAIVER OR CLARIFICATION OF THE AUDIOVISUAL OUTPUT REQUIREMENT OF SECTION 76.640(b)(4)(iii)

MB Docket No. 14-146

Comment Date: October 6, 2014

Reply Comment Date: October 20, 2014

TiVo Inc. ("TiVo") has filed a petition for waiver or clarification of Section 76.640(b)(4)(iii) of the Commission's rules on behalf of its cable operator customers.¹ Section 76.640(b)(4)(iii) requires that set-top boxes provided by cable operators include a digital interface to enable consumers to connect consumer electronics devices that they own to set-top boxes that they lease from their cable operators for whole-home viewing and recording.² Specifically, the rule requires cable operators to "ensure that the cable-operator-provided high definition set-top boxes, except unidirectional set-top boxes without recording functionality, shall comply with an open industry standard that provides for audiovisual communications including service discovery, video transport, and remote control command pass-through standards for home networking."³ TiVo asserts that its set-top boxes "provide[] the home networking functionality outlined in Section 76.640(b)(4)(iii) and thus provide[] consumers with the benefits anticipated by the rule, but do[] not use an 'open industry standard' as the Commission later described that term."⁴ TiVo argues that waiver is appropriate because its set-top boxes meet the intent of the home networking requirement by allowing consumers to send video content throughout their homes and

In November 2012, the Media Bureau clarified that it would use five factors to analyze whether a standard is an "open industry standard": (i) openness; (ii) balance of interest; (iii) due process; (iv) an appeals process; and (v) consensus. TiVo Inc.'s Request for Clarification and Waiver of the Audiovisual Output Requirement of Section 76.640(b)(4)(iii), 27 FCC Rcd 14875, 14879-14882, ¶¶ 11-13 (MB 2012).

because TiVo set-top boxes have had home network capability since before the industry settled on an open standard for it.⁵ Alternatively, TiVo requests that we clarify whether the rule is still in effect,⁶ or provide TiVo with nine additional months to implement the open industry standard in the boxes that it sells to cable operators.⁷ We seek comment on TiVo's request.
